

Order of Worship for Holy Eucharist Rite II

Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost

September 8, 2024, 10:00 a.m.

Feeding the Hungry + Welcoming the Stranger
Being Transformed by God

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us today. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our visitor's card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church. Activity bags are available at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged.

Prelude

Opening Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

The Church's one foundation

Hymnal 525

The Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

The Gloria

Hymnal S-277

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Grant us, O Lord, to trust in you with all our hearts; for, as you always resist the proud who confide in their own strength, so you never forsake those who make their boast of your mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Children's Procession

Children in grades K-5 are invited to a children's ministry time. They will process out of the church together to tour our Godly Play (K-2) and Kids of the Kingdom (3-5) classrooms, learn about what's coming this year in Children's Ministry, and enjoy Popsicles on the Playground together before returning for the announcements.

Jesus loves you, this we know (sung by all)

Jesus loves you, this we know, for the Bible tells us so.

Little ones to him belong, they are weak but He is strong.

Yes, Jesus loves you. Yes, Jesus loves you.

Yes, Jesus loves you—the Bible tells us so.

The Word of God

The First Reading

Romans 12:4-18

For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness. Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (read responsively by whole verse)

Psalm 146

Hallelujah!

Praise the Lord, O my soul! *

I will praise the Lord as long as I live;

I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.

Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any child of earth, *
for there is no help in them.

When they breathe their last, they return to earth, *
and in that day their thoughts perish.

Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help! *
whose hope is in the Lord their God;

Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them; *
who keeps his promise for ever;

Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, *
and food to those who hunger.

The Lord sets the prisoners free;
the Lord opens the eyes of the blind; *
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;

The Lord loves the righteous;
the Lord cares for the stranger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the way of the wicked.

The Lord shall reign for ever, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Hallelujah!

Gradual Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

In Christ there is no East or West (vv. 1–2)

Hymnal 529

The Holy Gospel (standing)

John 15:12–17

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one’s life for one’s friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.”

The PeaceAnnouncements*The Holy Communion*Offertory AnthemO Day of Peace that Dimly Shines*arr. Jantz A. Black lyrics by Carl P. Daw, Jr.

*O day of peace that dimly shines
Through all our hopes and prayers and dreams,
Guide us to justice, truth, and love,
Delivered from our selfish schemes.
May swords of hate fall from our hands
Our hearts from envy find release,
Till by God’s grace our warring world
Shall see Christ’s promised reign of peace.*

*Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb
Nor shall the fierce devour the small;
As beasts and cattle calmly graze
A little child shall lead them all.
Then enemies shall learn to love,
All creatures find their true accord;
The hope of peace shall be fulfilled,
For all the earth shall know the Lord.*

Sanctus

Hymnal S-130

The Lord's Prayer

BCP p. 364

The Breaking of the Bread

We are offering Communion in both kinds. If you do not want to receive Communion but would like to come forward for a blessing, come to either side of the altar rail and place your arms across your chest in the form of an "X" or cross.

Communion Hymns

Let us break bread together on our knees

Hymnal 325

Servant Song

David Haas

1. Will you let me be your servant?

Let me be as Christ to you

Pray that I may have the grace

To let you be my servant too

2. We are pilgrims on the journey

We are travellers on the road

We are here to help each other

Walk the mile and bear the load

3. I will hold the Christ light for you

In the night time of your fear

I will hold my hand out to you

Speak the peace you long to hear

4. I will weep when you are weeping

When you laugh, I'll laugh with you

I will share your joy and sorrow

Till we've seen this journey through

5. Will you let me be your servant?

Let me be as Christ to you

Pray that I may have the grace

To let you be my servant too

God is love, and where true love is

Hymnal 577

Postcommunion Prayer

BCP p. 365

Litany of Blessing

One: Together we are the body of Christ,

All: and we belong to each other.

One: We can share our joy, laughter, and hope;

All: we can share our fears, overwhelm, and sadness.

One: When we share what is good,

All: it is multiplied.

One: When we share what is hard,

All: the load is divided.

One: In this community,

All: may we learn and grow.

One: In our gatherings and groups,

All: may we show support and build each other up.

One: In our homes and families,

All: may we embody care and spark love.

One: Together we are the body of Christ,

All: and we belong to each other.

Closing Prayer

O God, the One in whom we live, and move, and have our being, as we start this new year, we offer ourselves to you, a movement committed to your mission. Work through us so that together we may be more than we are on our own. Like the multitude of colors and shapes that make up a mosaic, you have made each person unique and beautiful. Help us to see how we fit together so that we can create a masterpiece of love. Fill us with your purpose and your peace. Amen.

Closing Hymn

Christ for the world we sing!

Hymnal 537

The Dismissal

BCP p. 366

Deacon Let us go forth together sharing the love of Christ.

People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

We Pray For

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: The Church of the Province of Myanmar (Burma)

Anglican chaplains accompanied the British Army in Burma in 1824, but mission work itself only began with the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in the mid-1850s. The Mission to Seamen established themselves in 1907, and the Bible Churchmen's Missionary Society in the 1920s. Many Anglicans were Anglo-Burmese or Anglo-Indian (persons of either British and Burmese or British and Indian descent). Many left at independence in 1948, leading to a sharp decline in the number of Anglicans in this overwhelmingly Buddhist nation. In 1961 Buddhism was declared the state religion, and five years later all foreign missionaries were expelled. From its early years Anglicans in Burma had been part of the Church of England in India; in 1930 they became part of a province named the Church of India, Burma, and Ceylon. The Burmese church became its own province in 1970, renamed the Church of the Province of Myanmar when the country changed its name in 1989.

Today

Welcome to Our Fall Kickoff and Parish Picnic

This is a joyous time to gather as a parish, meet new friends, and prepare for a fall season of fellowship, formation, and worship. Please join us after worship for an all-parish picnic with activities for kids, church tours, and an opportunity to add or update your church directory listing and photo! We look forward to sharing a warm St. Andrew's welcome as we begin a new program year.

Middle & High Schoolers— EYC is Breaking Out Tonight! Have You Signed Up?

Meet at Breakout Games, 700 Carnegie Pl., at 5:00 p.m. — Pickup is at 6:30 p.m.

We're kicking off what's shaping up to be an amazing EYC year with an outing to Breakout Games tonight, 5:00–6:30 p.m. All rising 6th–12th graders are invited to this exciting evening of team building and connecting with new and old friends. See <https://bit.ly/EYCBreakoutSeptember2024> to sign up.

And here's a sneak peek at EYC for September 15! Once we're done showing Breakout Games who's boss, let's plan to meet next Sunday, September 15, for foosball, fun, food, and fellowship in Herman Hall. We'll hang out from 5:00 to 6:30 while the parents party down the block at the Taylors' house, then compare notes when they pick us up to see who had more fun. (Spoiler alert: It will be us.)

Please email Martha Chaires at martha@standrewsgso.org with any EYC questions.

This Week

Episcopal Church Women (ECW) Meetings Resume — September 9 & 11

St. Andrew's has two active ECW chapters who invite you to join them this fall.

The St. Agatha & St. Mary ECW Chapter meets on second Mondays at 2:00 p.m. in the Parish Hall. Join us September 9 for a program led by Rev. Ginny called "Sharing our Stories."

The St. Anne ECW Chapter meets on second Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. in the Library.

Join us September 11 for a program led by parishioner Eleanor Baker. We will continue to support the Interactive Resource Center (IRC) this year, but please hold your contributions until later.

We hope you can attend one of our ECW chapter meetings as we begin the 2024–2025 year.

Sign Up for a Breakfast & Interest Meeting for the Brotherhood of Saint Andrew

Saturday, September 14, at 9:00 a.m. in the Parish Hall

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew (BOSA), the oldest lay ministry in the Episcopal Church, originated in Chicago in 1883 to help those living on the street. Its mission is focused on prayer, study, and service to create an environment for others to know and engage with Jesus Christ. St. Andrew's will host an interest meeting for all men of the parish this Saturday at 9 a.m. We will begin with breakfast catered by the Brotherhood, followed by discussion led by Tom Martin (BOSA National 1st Vice President for Growth, Renewal, & Development), to provide information on BOSA as a potential parish ministry. Sign up on the bulletin board in the Parish Hall. Contact David Stokes with questions.

September 15

Adult Formation Begins Next Sunday with a Book Study on A Voice in the Wilderness

In 2022, The Next Big Idea Club listed A Voice in the Wilderness: A Pioneering Biologist Explains How Evolution Can Help Us Solve Our Biggest Problems (Basic Books) by Joseph L. Graves, Jr., as one of its 26 best science books of the year (<https://bit.ly/Top26ScienceBooks2022>). In May 2023, Christianity Today published a scathing review of the book written by the anti-science Discovery Institute. And a month later, the scholarly journal Black Theology hailed it for its “prophetic voice.” A Voice in the Wilderness is an exploration of the scientific career of Dr. Joseph L. Graves, Jr., who is a St. Andrew’s parishioner. This month, we will offer a three-week formation study to discuss the main themes of the book: racism within science and how Joe Graves became the first African American evolutionary biologist; how to have a productive dialog between faith and science; and what evolutionary science can tell us about how to solve some of our biggest social problems. We hope you will start reading now and join us Sundays, September 15, 22, and 29, right after worship. Our study will focus on Chapters 1, 9, 10, and 14. The book is available for order through local book sellers and online.

Living Compass Class for Parents (begins September 15, Library)

Grounded in Scripture, the tradition of the Church, and the sharing our own stories, this course is designed to support participants as they seek to live the abundant life God intends for them. We often say that you have to put on your own life vest before you can help another, but it is easy to lose sight of our own well-being when we are actively parenting. The Living Compass is a model that invites us to attend to our mind, heart, strength, and soul. In a small group setting, we’ll create a space of rest, contemplation, deep conversation, and compassion, while learning to better care for ourselves as we care for our kids. The class runs concurrently with our Confirmation for Youth course, and childcare will be available. We will also be using this Living Compass model for our senior high EYC in the spring. Facilitated by Anna Taylor and Rev. Ginny Inman.

Youth Confirmation (begins September 15, Herman Hall)

Join us for our first Youth Confirmation meeting next week. Our first class will be on Baptism, so come with a photo and a story to share of your very own baptismal day! To learn more about youth confirmation, please email Martha Chaires at martha@standrewsgso.org.

Family Fall Kickoff (September 15, Home of Craig & Anna Taylor)

Let’s start the fall off right by spending time with other St. Andrew’s parents and enjoying a meal together. Parishioners Craig & Anna Taylor will host a parents-only kickoff at their home (117 S. Tremont St.) on September 15, 5:00-6:30 p.m. Craig will serve up delicious smoked pork shoulder, and you can sign up to bring a side, drink, or dessert at <https://bit.ly/StAParentsFall2024>—or just bring yourself! Either way, come ready to connect with new friends, hang with old friends, learn about what we’re offering for children, parents, and families this year—and about how you can get involved.

Would You Like to Be Confirmed in the Episcopal Church? Please Let Us Know by September 15

Confirmation is the sacramental rite through which persons confirm their baptismal vows and deepen their commitment to the Episcopal Church. Those wishing to join the Episcopal Church may do so through confirmation or, if confirmed already, through reception or a reaffirmation of their confirmation commitment. Persons already confirmed in other churches adhering to the apostolic succession (such as Roman Catholic and Lutheran) are not confirmed again but received into our communion. Those who are baptized and confirmed who wish to recommit themselves to a life of faith may reaffirm their baptismal vows. Bishop Jennifer Brooke-Davidson will be with us on November 10, 2024. If you are interested in confirmation, reception, or reaffirmation, please contact the Rev. Ginny Bain Inman at rector@standrewsgso.org.

Blessing of Burgundy Bags and Our Mission to Feed the Hungry—September 15

Our weekly Burgundy Bag food donations are an outward and visible sign of St. Andrew's mission of "feeding the hungry." Each week, our donations are delivered to One Step Further Food Pantry to support their vital efforts to relieve food insecurity in Greensboro. Next Sunday we will re-commit to this mission with a special blessing of a brand-new shipment of bags. If you have a Burgundy Bag at home, our Missions and Outreach Committee asks that you please bring it to church for this blessing. If you do not have one, you will be invited to pick up one of the newly blessed bags after worship for your household to use going forward. Let's gather both to celebrate the work already done in our partnership with One Step Further and to resolve to move it forward and grow in our giving. To learn more about our Missions and Outreach work, contact Doug Sanecki at dpsanecki@gmail.com.

Announcements & Ongoing Offerings

Fall Foyers are Coming! Sign Up Today to Join Our Next Groups

The Summer session of our Foyer Dinner Groups was grand fun, and we are now taking signups for our next round! Please sign up online at <https://bit.ly/FoyersSept2024> or on the signup sheet in the Parish Hall. What are Foyer Dinners, you ask? They are a wonderful way to get to know fellow parishioners over monthly meals. Each group includes 6–8 members who enjoy informal monthly gatherings. Most meet where the host provides the main course and guests bring sides, appetizers, and desserts. Others meet for burgers or pizza. The goal is to share a meal and have time to get to know each other outside of our parish life. To learn more, look for foyer group organizers Ralph and Laura Bricker after weekly worship, or contact them at lbbricker@gmail.com or 843-263-3288.

EYC Is Looking for a Few Good Leaders—Could You Be One?

Our EYC, the place to be on Sunday evenings for St. Andrew's 6th–12th graders, is growing by leaps and bounds. So, this year we're transitioning from meeting twice a month to meeting weekly. This means we need the support of our parish family to keep this ministry growing. If you have a heart for tweens and teens and a spirit for a whole lot of fun, fellowship, and spiritual development, this might be the place for you. The time commitment is only a few hours per month, and we promise that the payoff is worth every second. Spending time with this incredible group of youth and young adults is always rewarding and so much fun! Please contact Martha Chaires at martha@standrewsgso.org for info.

Join Bishop Curry for Vote Faithfully: Episcopalians Engaging the U.S. Election—September 18, 1 p.m. Register for this Online Event at <https://episcopalparishes.org/upcoming-workshops/>.

Join Presiding Bishop Michael Curry with guests from across the church exploring the meaning behind voting from a theological perspective that centers this civic action as one expression of caring for one another and God’s creation. Our panelists will offer framing for healthy, faith-based civic engagement from the theoretical to the tangible, including addressing why it is important for Episcopal churches to leverage our resources to help our broader communities vote. In an election full of increasing pressures—disinformation, the risk of political violence, disenfranchisement, environmental concerns, and more—come learn how to navigate challenges while remaining focused in our preparations to cast our votes in this fall’s election. Our panelists will provide an engaging discussion and direct attendees to resources that can help you encourage your parishioners and community to vote faithfully.

Hearing the Gospel Fall 2024—Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. in the Parish Hall

Our fall series of Hearing the Gospel Bible Study has begun. We meet Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. for about an hour, closing with the service of Noonday Prayer. Each week we read the Gospel for the coming Sunday and discuss what it meant in Jesus’ time and how it relates to us today. No preparation is required, and all members of the Parish and visitors are welcome. This fall, most readings will be from the Gospel of Mark If you’d like to learn more, contact Jill Lowe at gmlowe17325@yahoo.com.

Help Welcome Our Afghan Allies

Since the U.S. withdrawal from Afghanistan in August 2021, more than 97,000 Afghans, including those who worked alongside U.S. military, diplomats, and aid workers in Afghanistan, have arrived in the U.S. seeking safety. Episcopal Migration Ministries and other agencies have worked to resettle those Afghans who were able to leave Afghanistan, many of whom face an uncertain future without legal permanent status. As Christians, we have the opportunity to help the vulnerable and extend welcome to those who seek refuge. We have a particular obligation to help those who worked alongside the U.S. government, as well as those most at risk when the Taliban returned to power. We are renewing our call for Congress to support passage of the “Afghan Adjustment Act” (S.Amdt.2682 to S.4638) as an amendment to the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2025 or as a standalone bill to create a dedicated path to permanent status for Afghans in the United States. Please visit <https://www.voteroice.net/EPISCOPAL/Campaigns/99981/Respond> and write your letters today!

St. Andrew’s is Hiring for a Part-Time Facilities Manager

Have you always dreamed of more house to take care of? Do you binge watch re-runs of “This Old Church?” Are you unflustered by minor flushing adjustments? If you answer yes to one or more of these questions, St. Andrew’s would love to hear from you—by email, please! Send your resume and two references to parish@standrewsgso.org. The Part-Time Facilities Manager at St. Andrew’s will maintain and oversee the property, ensuring the church campus is clean, safe, and functional. This includes collaborating with clergy, staff, vestry, congregational leaders, and outside contractors. This is a part-time managerial and task-oriented role reporting to the Parish Administrator, with varying hours week to week, based on need. Please see the job description at <https://bit.ly/StAHiringPTFM> for details, and feel free to share with potential candidates.

EfM is Seeking New Participants—Classes Begin Soon

Education for Ministry or EfM might also be called Exploration for Ministry. In this small-group seminar program you'll explore the Bible, the history of Christianity and Christian theology, what YOU believe, and what it means to be a person of faith in today's world. Through study, prayer, and a process called Theological Reflection, you'll enjoy guided conversations on diverse topics that you rarely if ever have with others. The critical question we seek to answer is "What is my own ministry in God's creation?" A new EfM class will begin this month. While EfM is a four-year program, participants commit to only one year at a time, which runs September through May. In addition to learning and discovery, EfM offers a source of fellowship among its participants. We hope you will consider joining the class this fall. To learn more, contact Brenda Swearingin (336-423-6876, swearinginbl@guilford.edu) or Marcia Moore (336-202-6516, marcitt@bellsouth.net).

Your Gifts Sustain Our Mission & Ministry

Thank you for your generous gifts to St. Andrew's. If you have questions about your giving, please email Ray Marsh at bookkeeper@standrewsgso.org or leave him a message at 336-265-1651, ext. 3. Ray is in the office on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. To make a new gift, scan the code at right, visit abundant.co/standrewsepiscopalch/give, or mail a check to St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Bookkeeper, 2105 W. Market St., Greensboro, NC 27403
