Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria

Hymnal S-277

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Children's Procession

When the Saints Go Marching in

Oh, when the saints go marching in, Oh, when the saints go marching in,
Lord, how I want to be in that number, When the saints go marching in.

The Word of God

The First Reading (Please be seated.)

Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (sung by all)

Psalm 149

Anglican Chant by Jerome Meacham

Chanting the Psalm

Move to next note after / and *
and at each new verse.

*The earth is the Lord's and all that is / in it, *
the world and all who dwell there- / in.
For it is he who founded it upon the / seas *
and made it firm upon the rivers of the / deep.
"Who can ascend the hill of the / Lord? *
and who can stand in his holy / place?"
"Those who have clean hands and a pure / heart, *
who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a / fraud.
They shall receive a blessing from the / Lord *
and a just reward from the God of their sal- / vation."
Such is the generation of those who / seek him, *
of those who seek your face, O God of / Jacob.
Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting / doors; *
and the King of glory shall come / in.
"Who is this King of / glory?" *
"The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in / battle."
Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting / doors; *
and the King of glory shall come / in.
"Who is he, this King of / glory?" *
"The Lord of hosts, he is the King of / glory."*

Gradual Hymn (standing)

Ye holy angels bright (vv. 1-2)

Hymnal 625

The Holy Gospel

John 11:32-44

Deacon The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

We Pray For

Those impacted by hurricanes: A Prayer for Those Working to Rebuild

Compassionate God, source of all comfort, we pray for the people whose lives have been devastated this hurricane season. Bring them comfort, we pray. Protect the vulnerable. Strengthen the weak. Keep at bay the spread of disease. Have mercy on all those working to rebuild. And may our response to their suffering be generous and bring you praise. We ask this in Jesus' name. — Adapted from Christian Aid, UK

Please check the "Ways to Help with Hurricane Relief Efforts" diocesan webpage for regular updates on how best to help those affected by recent hurricanes. Prayer and financial gifts are most needed. Episcopal Relief & Development offers prayer resources that may be helpful. Donations to the seven affected dioceses in North Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia, the Gulf Coast, and Florida; Episcopal Relief & Development; and the American Red Cross all are needed, and links to these organizations are provided on the hurricane relief page.

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: Church of the Province of South East Asia

This province consists of three dioceses in Malaysia and one for the island city state of Singapore, although its mission work extends into Indonesia, Vietnam, Nepal, Laos, Thailand, and Cambodia—quite a geographical spread! Anglicanism first came to the region through British East India Company chaplains centuries ago. Then, first under the Bishop of Calcutta (now Kolkata) and later directly under the Archbishop of Canterbury, in 1996 these Anglican churches eventually became their own province. A minority in a diverse culture, Anglicans here have consulted and worked with many other faiths, including Buddhism, Hinduism, Sikhism, and Taosim, as well as among the majority Muslim population. Many of the Anglicans are Chinese and Tamil.

Today

Welcome to Our All Saints' Celebration

Today we celebrate the Feast of All Saints, a special time in the church year for remembering our loved ones who have died and those saints in light who have gone before us. It is a day when we hold together quiet reflection and joyful celebration. Our service will feature beautiful music and a candlelight liturgy as a way to remember the light of Christ that is passed through all generations. If we have missed a name in our listing of the faithful departed today, please let Susan Frye know, at parish@standrewsgso.org.

Join Us for a Community Conversation— St. Andrew's Cloud of Witnesses—Right after Worship in the Parish Hall

Join Dottie Clark, Dana Gaspar, and the Rev. Ginny Inman for a delightful and fascinating presentation of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church's history. We'll hear about the congregation's beginnings in what is now downtown Greensboro, its struggles and successes, its many devoted founders and supporters, how its journey has taken us to where we are today, and what our future may hold. We will gather in the Parish Hall right after worship!

Walk in Love: Episcopal 101—Right after Church in the Cloister

Our Episcopal 101 class on the basics of the Episcopal Church concludes today. We have been exploring the faith, beliefs, history, structure, and practices of the Episcopal Church, with plenty of space to ask questions! Led by Spencer Musick.

Youth Confirmation Class Today after Worship— Confirmation Next Sunday

Our Youth Confirmation class will meet after worship today downstairs in Herman Hall. If you have questions about youth confirmation, please email Martha Chaires at martha@standrewsgso.org. Confirmation is next Sunday! Confirmands and mentors should come to the Parish Hall by 9:30 a.m. on November 10 to meet with the Bishop before worship. We will process in together and will sit in the front pews. ### Support Our Confirmands—Bishop Visitation on November 10

The Right Rev. Jennifer Brooke-Davidson, our diocesan Assisting Bishop, will be with us for our annual visitation on Sunday, November 10. We are planning a special service for those being confirmed, received, and reaffirmed. We hope you will come to worship and support them on this important day. After the service, we will have a festive reception in the Parish Hall.

Who is on Your Ballot this Election Year?—Election Day is Tuesday, November 5

Before you head for the polls, learn more about all of the candidates on your ballot. Often, we aren't familiar with down-ballot candidates for North Carolina and local offices and judgeships or what they stand for. These positions greatly affect our day-to-day lives on issues such as education, reproductive rights, health care, and gun violence / public safety. To see a sample ballot for your precinct, go to the State Board of Elections at <https://vt.ncsbe.gov>, click on "voter search," and enter your information. You can then search for their web pages to make sure they will support the issues you care about.

Share a Dish with Abundant Life Community Dinner—Dropoff November 10 & 12

Each month, St. Andrew's partners with other Episcopal churches to cook for Abundant Life's community dinners at the Church of the Holy Spirit. Our next turn is November 12, and we are now seeking cooks! To help, simply fill a 9x13 disposable pan with a favorite dish, put it in the church kitchen freezer by the morning of November 10, or drop off at the home of Barbara Cooke on November 12, 12:00–3:15 p.m. Please sign up at <https://bit.ly/AbundantLifeStA>, using the tab for the current month. Contact Barbara with questions at 336-521-0040 or bjcooke58@gmail.com.

Daughters of the King is Collecting Toiletry Items & Warm Clothing—Now through November 17

Our Daughters of the King Chapter is filling Christmas Stockings for the houseless community again this year and needs our help! We have been blessed by several members who have knitted hats and scarves. Now we are asking for your donations of travel-sized toiletry items to fill them. We also are collecting gently used warm clothing. This is a quick, two-week collection, through November 17. Our goal is to distribute the full stockings and warm clothing and serve hot chocolate and cookies along with Christmas Caroling for our houseless neighbors this winter. This is a wonderful way to love our neighbors as ourselves! Look for collection bins outside of the Cloister. To learn more about the Daughters of the King, contact the Rev. Pamela Haynes at deacon@standrewsgso.org.

Send Us Your College Students' Addresses by November 11—Care Packages are in the Works

The ECW Chapter of St. Agatha and St. Mary's soon will be packing and mailing their annual college boxes of snacks to college students of families at St. Andrew's. The boxes will arrive in time for hours of studying for exams. Please send us addresses! If you know of college students you would like to be included in this love mailing, we invite you to submit their names and mailing addresses by November 11. Please send information to Janice Cox Pollard at 336-317-4171 or jcallcox@gmail.com, or to Susan Frye at parish@standrewsgso.org.

Sacred Ground at St. Andrew's—Informational Meeting November 17

Sacred Ground invites participants to walk back through our American racial history to understand where we are today, reflecting on our own family histories and stories, as well as important narratives that shape the collective American story. It holds as a guiding star the vision of beloved community—where all people are honored, protected, and nurtured as beloved children of God; where we weep at one another's pain and seek one another's flourishing. The invitation is to form a dialogue circle of 8–11 people who will meet for 11 sessions to engage with the films, videos, written materials, and each other. The Rev. Tricia de Beer will facilitate, and classes begin in January 2025. All are invited to the informational meeting after worship on November 17 in the Library. Contact Tricia at 336-457-4524 with questions.

Snacks, lunch, and holiday activities are also available. Please mark your calendar for Saturday, December 7, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., and join us! On Saturdays through November 23, we will host a St. Andrew's tent at The Corner Farmers Market to take orders for Deck the Halls wreaths, cookies, and gingerbread houses. We are looking for two helpers for each week who can join us in this fun Saturday morning outreach effort! We meet at 7:00 a.m. at the church to move our tent, tables, chairs, and supplies from the church to the Market. When the market closes at noon, we break camp and return our supplies to the church. It is a wonderful way to start your day in the neighborhood. We appreciate your support in making it happen—we could not do this without you! The remaining dates are November 9, 16, and 23. Six volunteers will fill the bill! Please email Fran Swan to sign up at francinemq53@gmail.com.

Prayer for the Generations

God of the generations,
when we set our hands to labor,
thinking we work alone,
remind us that we carry
    on our lips
the words of prophets,
    in our veins
the blood of martyrs,
    in our eyes
the mystics' visions,
    in our hands
the strength of thousands.
