Feeding the Hungry + Welcoming the Stranger

Being Transformed by God

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us today. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our visitor's card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church. Activity bags are available at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged.

Prelude

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Children's Procession to Children's Chapel

Children in grades K-5 are invited to an Advent Children's Chapel this morning. They will process out of the church together, following the cross, and go to our Children's Chapel downstairs for a special story, thanksgiving, and communion just for the little ones.

This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine! (Sing 3 times.) Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine!
Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine! (Sing 3 times.) Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine!

The Word of God

The First Reading

1 Thessalonians 3:9–13

How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you? Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith.

Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you. And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

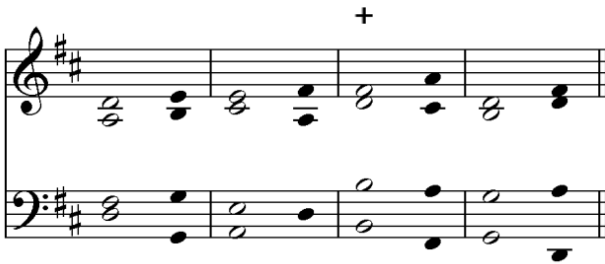

Reader        The Word of the Lord.

People        Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 21:25–36

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in a cloud’ with power and great glory. Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.”

Then he told them a parable: “Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

“Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

For the church, that it may help to clear a path for God’s reconciling love. God of all hopefulness,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader For the world, that hurt and destruction may yield to the beauty and justice of God’s peaceable reign. God of all hopefulness,

People Hear our prayer.

Reader For all in positions of power, that they may have hearts of compassion and become advocates for the vulnerable and the oppressed. God of all hopefulness,
People Hear our prayer.

Reader For the sick, the lonely, and all who suffer, that through our love and care, God's tender love may be made known. God of all hopefulness,
People Hear our prayer.

Reader For all who have died, that they may be gathered into the strong and gentle arms of God. God of all hopefulness,
People Hear our prayer.

Celebrant O God, whose Word brings hope and whose promise is a new creation, make a way in the wilderness of our world. Open our eyes to see your coming, and strengthen us for the work of preparing the way for your reign of peace. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. AMEN.

We Pray For

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan

There have seemingly always been tensions in the historic nation of the Sudan, especially between the south (which identified with East African nations) and the north (which identified with North African Arabs and with Egypt). A long civil war ended with the creation of a new nation, South Sudan, in 2011. Six years later, Anglicans created a new Episcopal Church of South Sudan, with perhaps 3 ½ million members. Sadly, they have serious ethnic divisions leading to violent conflicts. Recently the president created a South Sudan Truth Commission, but the next step, investigating South Sudan war crimes, has not been taken. Additionally, in 2024 flooding covered forty counties in the country, affecting almost one million people. In the midst of all of this, the American Friends of the Episcopal Church of the Sudans, founded in 2005, tries to be supportive of Anglicans in the two Sudans, including of a new school in the Diocese of Wau.

Today—First Sunday of Advent

Our Chrismon Tree is Up

Chrismon means CHRISMONogram, and the ornaments on the Chrismon Tree tell the story of Christ's life, ministry, death, and resurrection. Chrismon Trees began as an offering to God to glorify God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. The colors of the ornaments are white and gold—white as the liturgical color for Christmas and for God's purity and perfection, and gold to refer to God's majesty and glory. The white lights of the tree symbolize Christ the Light of the world.

Adult Formation: Advent Reflections on Hope, Peace, Joy, & Love—Right after Worship (Library) Sundays, December 1, 8, 15, and 22

This four-week offering explores the themes we experience when we light the Advent Candles each year—hope, peace, joy, and love. Led by Phil Barrineau, the class will be primarily interactive and conversational as we connect with others around our experiences of these broad themes and their Biblical / theological meaning.

Phil Barrineau holds a Master of Divinity degree from Asbury Theological Seminary and a Ph.D. in Counseling and Human Development from the University of Georgia. He has been a part of this parish since 2007.

Come to Our Intergenerational Advent Event with Wreath Making and Fellowship Right after Worship (Parish Hall)

We will host an Advent Event in the Parish Hall after church today. Everything you need to make your own Advent wreath will be provided, and we'll enjoy fellowship and conversation while we build our wreaths together. A donation of $10 per wreath-making kit is suggested but not required.

Announcements

Our Advent Lessons and Carols Service is Next Sunday—December 8, 10 a.m. Worship

Join us on the Second Sunday of Advent for an Advent Service of Lessons & Carols. This service consists of scripture readings interspersed with choral presentations and hymns, all of which recall mankind's longing for liberation from sin and death, and our hope and expectation for the coming of Christ the Lord. Through our experience of sacred Word and music, the story unfolds gradually and deepens our understanding of God's message of love and redemption. May the words and music of this service propel you quietly toward the true joy of Christmas.

If you can't come to church that day, please deliver to the church office on December 10, 10 a.m.–2 p.m. Thank you for your generosity and for helping to provide a joyful holiday season to children in need.
