Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine! (Sing 3 times.) Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine!

The Word of God

A Reading from the Hebrew Bible

Isaiah 60:1–6

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord.

Reader        The Word of the Lord.

People        Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (read responsively by whole verse)

Psalm 72:1–7, 10–14

Give the King your justice, O God, *

and your righteousness to the King's Son;

That he may rule your people righteously ****

and the poor with justice;

That the mountains may bring prosperity to the people, *

and the little hills bring righteousness.

He shall defend the needy among the people; ****

he shall rescue the poor and crush the oppressor.

He shall live as long as the sun and moon endure, *

from one generation to another.

He shall come down like rain upon the mown field, ****

like showers that water the earth.

In his time shall the righteous flourish; *

there shall be abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall pay tribute, ****

and the kings of Arabia and Saba offer gifts.

All kings shall bow down before him, *
and all the nations do him service.

*For he shall deliver the poor who cries out in distress, *
and the oppressed who has no helper.*

He shall have pity on the lowly and poor; *
he shall preserve the lives of the needy.

*He shall redeem their lives from oppression and violence, *
and dear shall their blood be in his sight.*

Gradual Hymn (standing)

In the bleak midwinter (vv. 1–2)

Hymnal 112

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 2:1–12

Deacon The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.” When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: ‘And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’”

Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.” When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Gradual Hymn

Hymnal 112

Homily (seated)

The Rev. Ginny Bain Inman

The Prayers of the People for Epiphany (standing or kneeling)

Let us pray to God, who is made manifest in Jesus Christ.

As the prophet Isaiah rang out, “Arise, shine; for your light has come”; empower your Church, O God, to ring out the Good News of the Light of your son Jesus, which pierces even the deepest darkness. Lord, hear our prayer.

As a star rose high into the nighttime sky to draw the nations to the Christ-child; send your blessing, O God, on this nation, and every nation, and draw the whole world to your peace and truth. Lord, hear our prayer.

As John the Baptist guided throngs of people to the edge of the wilderness and baptized Jesus in the River Jordan, we pray that you would guide our country and our leaders to the ways of justice and righteousness. Lord, hear our prayer.

Like the Magi who traveled from afar to bring gifts and celebrate the Savior’s birth; we pray for this community and the gifts we bring to you. Lord, hear our prayer.

As Jesus climbed the mountaintop, and proclaimed blessings on the people of the world; we pray for the sick and the distressed, the hungry and cold and homeless, for refugees and those seeking safety. Lord, hear our prayer.

As Jesus called his disciples to leave their nets and boats, and follow him; we pray for those we love and who have answered your call to follow Jesus to your Heavenly Kingdom. Give them your peace. Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, Light of the World, hear our prayers, and make us reflections of your Light, that the places of darkness in our world would be pierced by your Light, and that all nations would be drawn to you and be overwhelmed with joy. Amen.

For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people;
but the Lord shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee,
And the gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.*

We Pray For

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: The Church of the Province of West Africa

Simply put, the Anglican province of West Africa contains everybody except the Nigerians, who have their own province. This province includes Sierra Leone, since 1852 the historic center of Anglican mission work in the region, with its Fourah Bay College preparing generations of West African intellectuals and church leaders; Ghana, the strongest Anglican presence in the region these days; Liberia, one of only two territories in Africa that was never colonized, and which has historic American church ties; and the Gambia, the tiniest of them all. In post-independent West Africa, these Anglicans initiated missionary dioceses in nearby French-speaking nations; and Cameroon, Guinea, and Senegal, along with the former-Portuguese Cape Verde islands, are now part of the province.

Welcome  Epiphany!

Today we celebrate the Feast of the Epiphany. We will introduce Star Words in our worship, distributing star-shaped cards, each with a word on one side. As we consider together what it means to Look for the Light, reflecting on these words can serve as a simple spiritual practice, inviting you to set your intention for the new year.

After Church, Join Us for Coffee, Conversation, & Chalking the Doors (Parish Hall)

Our Epiphany Celebration continues after our worship. We'll have Coffee & Conversation in the Parish Hall, with chalk available and instructions for those wishing to bless their homes in 2025 with the ancient tradition of Chalking the Doors. This practice consists of marking a blessing in chalk to invite God's blessing on a home, church, or other entryway, and on all who enter its doors during the year. The markings are usually made above the front door in this pattern: 20 + C + M + B + 25. The numbers reflect the new calendar year. The letters have two meanings—as the initials of the traditional names of the three magi (Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar), and as the initials of the Latin phrase Christus Mansionem Benedicat, or "Christ bless this dwelling." The + signs are for the Cross of Christ. Before, during, or after the chalking of the door, a prayer might be offered: O God of Stars and Journeys, we ask your blessing on this threshold. May all whose journeys lead them through these doors be blessed with health, generosity of spirit, a joyful heart, and deep peace. O God of Welcome, may all who enter this doorway rejoice to find Christ living among us, and may we seek and serve, in everyone we meet, that same Jesus who is the incarnate Word, now and forever. Amen. Additional information about Epiphany and this tradition is included in our "Epiphany at Home" handout available after church today and in our Weekly eNews.

Tonight at 5 p.m.—EYC Epiphany Edition: Bring Canned Goods for Sharing & Greens for Burning

This Epiphany our youth are going to party like it's 1999—or 567 AD! All middle and high schoolers are invited to share the light tonight with the ancient ceremony of the Burning of the Greens. Hang on to your greenery (Christmas trees, wreaths, and garlands welcome!) and bring it to church at 5 p.m. We'll celebrate Jesus' light coming into the world with bright, blazing fires of greens and a brief ceremony, followed by s'mores and hot chocolate. Like the magi who arrived a little late to the stable in Bethlehem, bring a gift to share—but instead of gold, frankincense, and myrrh, we ask that you bring canned goods to help stock the food pantry at Urban Ministries. In order to share the light and maximize on the gifts, we're inviting other Episcopal youth from around our city, so be ready to welcome new friends!

Diocesan Conversation Series: "About the Second Amendment" — January 23 at 7 p.m., via Zoom

The Second Amendment and the "right to keep and bear arms" are two of the most commonly cited arguments in any conversation concerning gun safety and ownership. But the citation, and the Second Amendment itself, is often misused and misunderstood. Professors Joseph Blocher and Darrell Miller, authors of The Positive Second Amendment and co-founders of the Duke Center for Firearms Law, will take us through the origins of the Second Amendment, as well as its journey through the courts and public perception to where we are today. Nonpolitical, balanced, and fact-based, this webinar will help attendees to understand what the Second Amendment is and is not, the intentions and factors that went into its creation, and how and why it has changed over the centuries. Informational and educational, this presentation is appropriate for anyone with an interest in American history, conversations about gun safety, or the facts about this key amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Offered by the diocesan Gun Violence Prevention Task Force as part of its ongoing Conversation Series.

THE YEAR AS A HOUSE

*Think of the year
as a house:
door flung wide
in welcome,
threshold swept
and waiting,
a graced spaciousness
opening and offering itself
to you.
Let it be blessed
in every room.
Let it be hallowed
in every corner.
Let every nook
be a refuge
and every object
set to holy use.
Let it be here
that safety will rest.
Let it be here
that health will make its home.
Let it be here
that peace will show its face.*

*Let it be here
that love will find its way.
Here
let the weary come
let the aching come
let the lost come
let the sorrowing come.
Here
let them find their rest
and let them find their soothing and let them find their place
and let them find their delight.
And may it be
in this house of a year
that the seasons will spin in beauty,
and may it be
in these turning days
that time will spiral with joy.
And may it be
that its rooms will fill
with ordinary grace
and light spill from every window
to welcome the stranger home.*
