

Order of Worship for Holy Eucharist Rite II & Annual All-Parish Meeting

Fourth Sunday after the Epiphany

February 2, 2025

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our visitor's card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church. Activity bags are available at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged.

Hymnal 525

The Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

Christ is the world's true Light

Hymnal 542

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Children's Procession

Children in grades K–5 are invited to children's ministry time. They will process out of the church together and go to the classroom hall for Godly Play (K–2) and Kids of the Kingdom (3–5), returning for the announcements.

*This little light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine! (Sing 3 times.) Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine!
Everywhere I go, I'm gonna let it shine! (Sing 3 times.) Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine!*

The Word of God

The First Reading

Hebrews 2:14–18

Since God's children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (read in unison)

Psalm 24:7–10

*Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.*

*"Who is this King of glory?" **

"The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle."

*Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
and the King of glory shall come in.*

*"Who is he, this King of glory?" **

"The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory."

Gradual Hymn (standing)

Lift up your heads, ye mighty gates (vv. 1–3)

The Holy Gospel

Luke 2:22–40

Deacon The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, the parents of Jesus brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel."

And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

The Prayers of the People for Epiphany (standing or kneeling)

Let us pray to God, who is made manifest in Jesus Christ.

As the prophet Isaiah rang out, "Arise, shine; for your light has come"; empower your Church, O God, to ring out the Good News of the Light of your son Jesus, which pierces even the deepest darkness.

Lord, hear our prayer.

As a star rose high into the nighttime sky to draw the nations to the Christ-child; send your blessing, O God, on this nation, and every nation, and draw the whole world to your peace and truth.

Lord, hear our prayer.

As John the Baptist guided throngs of people to the edge of the wilderness and baptized Jesus in the River Jordan, we pray that you would guide our country and our leaders to the ways of justice and righteousness.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Like the Magi who traveled from afar to bring gifts and celebrate the Savior's birth; we pray for this community and the gifts we bring to you.

Lord, hear our prayer.

As Jesus climbed the mountaintop, and proclaimed blessings on the people of the world; we pray for the sick and the distressed, the hungry and cold and homeless, for refugees and those seeking safety.

Lord, hear our prayer.

As Jesus called his disciples to leave their nets and boats, and follow him; we pray for those we love and who have answered your call to follow Jesus to your Heavenly Kingdom. Give them your peace.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Lord Jesus, Light of the World, hear our prayers, and make us reflections of your Light, that the places of darkness in our world would be pierced by your Love. Amen.

Order My Steps (In Your Word)

Glenn Burleigh

Order my steps in your Word, dear Lord, Lead me, guide me, every day.

Send your anointing, Father, I pray. Order my steps in your Word, please, Order my steps in your Word.

Humbly I ask Thee, teach me your will, While You are working, help me be still.

Tho' Satan is busy, God is real! Order my steps in your Word, please, Order my steps in your Word!

I want to walk worthy, my calling to fulfill. Please order my steps, Lord, and I'll do your blessed will.

The world is ever changing, but You are still the same. If You order my steps, I'll praise your name.

Order my steps in your Word, Order my tongue in your Word;

Guide my feet in your Word, Wash my heart in your Word.

Show me how to walk in your Word, Show me how to talk in your Word.

When I need a brand new song to sing, Show me how to let your praises ring, in your Word.

Please, order my steps in your Word.

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: The Anglican Church in Aotearoa, New Zealand, and Polynesia
This province principally includes New Zealand (Aotearoa is the Māori name for New Zealand) along with Fiji, Tonga, and Samoa. Church Missionary Society work among the Māori in New Zealand early in the 19th century was followed by church development among Anglican settlers arriving in mid-century, which quickly led to Anglicanism becoming the largest religious denomination in the country. New Zealand Anglicans have been especially sensitive to cultural diversity, asserting that it is “the right of every person to choose any particular cultural expression of the faith.” Its A New Zealand Prayer Book (1989) is considered by many to be the finest example of Anglican liturgy emerging from the liturgical renewal movement late in the last century.

Join Us in the Parish Hall after Worship Today for a Festive Reception & Our Annual All-Parish Meeting

Our nursery staff will stay longer so all families can attend.

Please plan to gather after church today for a joyful reception and our Annual All-Parish Meeting. We will have delicious food and catered coffee service by the friendly neighborhood baristas from A Special Blend (aspecialblend.org). Come learn more about our life in ministry and plans for the year ahead. Our new vestry members will be announced (see below), and we will give thanks for our outgoing vestry members and have an opportunity to review our budget. Join us as we reflect on our year Together for Love, Joy, and Service in our church, our community, and our world.

Vestry Candidates for 2025

We give thanks for the wonderful and dedicated vestry members who have given so much of their time and talent to shepherd St. Andrew's through the last three years: Lisa Garrett, Co-Junior Warden Nick Klett, Betty Self, and Co-Junior Warden Dirk Siegmund. They have shared their gifts with us, and we are grateful.

We are pleased to introduce the four vestry candidates for 2025 who will be invited to help shape our vision and lead us into the next season of our life together: Tim Fleming, Spencer Musick, Janice Cox Pollard, and Celeste Williams. Included with their photos below are thoughts shared by each candidate in response to the questions: (1) What aspects of the community of St. Andrew's are most meaningful to you? How would you describe St. Andrew's to a friend?; and (2) Why do you wish to serve on the vestry?

We invite you to learn more about the candidates by reading their thoughtful responses to these and other questions in our Vestry Slate Special Edition, emailed on January 23.

Tim Fleming

1. St. Andrew's is a very warm, welcoming, open, and diverse parish with an emphasis on spiritual growth and mission both within and outside our parish community. It is a multi-generational church with exceptional offerings for parishioners of all ages. We are blessed with dedicated clergy, staff, leaders, and parishioners committed to a spiritual life based on inward growth and outward mission. It is a growing church with a thriving family and youth program and is known for its outstanding musical ministry.

2. The larger Church is at a critical juncture in history to determine its place and relevance in our modern world. Now more than ever, the message of the Gospel and God's love is needed. St. Andrew's will play a part in bringing that message to our part of the world with our mission of feeding the hungry, welcoming the stranger, and being transformed by God. I'm excited about the future and vision of St. Andrew's and hope to do what I can to help make that vision a reality.

Spencer Musick

1. The fellowship and community at St. Andrew's are like no other place where I have worshiped. Our diverse parish family is truly a family. We are small enough that we can really get to know each other, but large enough (and growing!) that there are always new people to meet. The standard of preaching, from Ginny, Pam, and the various supply priests who serve our community, is consistently high. Worship is reverent and reflects the best of our community's talents without being stuffy or inaccessible. I can invite my friends to church without worrying that they will be lost or feel unwelcome.

2. The chance to give back to a church community that has been a central part of why I have been successful in my move back to Greensboro—growing as a person and as a Christian in fellowship with the great people of St. Andrew's.

Janice Cox Pollard

1. St. Andrew's is my family. I love to see familiar faces every Sunday and know that I can depend on each of them if I need anything, no matter how well I know them. We help each other through the hard times and good times. St. Andrew's is welcoming to everyone, warm and interested in your life, and down to earth.

2. I suddenly felt like it was my time. I go to Sunset Beach five times a year. When I researched and saw that I may only miss three meetings in three years, I felt it was meant to be. I want to help keep the church as wonderful as it is, and keep the friendly, accepting, love flowing from our church.

Celeste Williams

1. When I describe St. Andrew's to friends and family, I relate the authenticity of the church's mission to welcome the stranger. All are welcome, and all are loved – no matter where you are on your spiritual journey. Aside from the fact that folks are just wonderful at St. Andrew's, I would describe St. Andrew's as a collective experience of letting GOD love us. It's a space of understanding how connected we are; to GOD and to each other. And being connected is powerful, positive, and beautiful.

2. If given the opportunity to serve on the vestry, I see this as an opportunity to learn the operational side of the church. I also see this commitment as part of my own spiritual growth.

Support St. Andrew's EYC Service Trip with a SOUP-er Bowl Fundraiser for Costa Rica! Order TODAY!

This summer, 19 of St. Andrew's youth and adults will head south to our sister diocese in Costa Rica to build relationships and help with improvements in a local high school. You can help support them—and snag a yummy supper for yourself—by ordering quarts of St. Andrew's famous Deck the Halls chili! We'll have 40 quarts available for pickup next Sunday, February 9, for a suggested donation of $15 per quart. You may order as many quarts as you like by selecting the number in the online soup signup at St Andrews: St. Andrew's SOUP-er Bowl Fundraiser for EYC. Please indicate in the comment box whether you would like to pay by check or on our website under the "Give to St. A's" tab, and put "EYC Soup Sale" in the memo line whichever way you choose to pay. Be sure to order by February 8—or as fast as you can, before we sell out!

Come to EYC: Chili Edition TODAY!—4:00–6:30 p.m.

Today in EYC, we are helping to make chili to support our youth who are going to Costa Rica this summer! Join Chef Charles and Sous Chef Shelley in the Parish Hall to create quarts of yummy chili that we'll sell to raise money for the trip. If you've ever made chili before, you know that while it's simmering you have time to chill (see what we did there?). Lucky for us, we have a couple of special guests coming in to talk about Bishop Budde's sermon during the Inaugural Prayer Service. Why did she ask the new President to show mercy? Why are there so many mixed opinions about her plea? And what does it mean for us? We'll have time to talk it through together. EYC is from 5:00–6:30 tonight, but the chili making begins at 4:00, so come when you can. We can't wait to see you tonight!

Second Weekly Star Word Reflection for Epiphany

To celebrate Epiphany, we invited each member of the congregation to choose a star word for the year ahead and consider how God might be speaking to you through your word. This simple spiritual practice encourages each of us to hold, engage, and explore a word closely over time. What word did you get for 2025? We will offer a reflection question you can use with your star word for each week during Epiphany.

★ Use a dictionary to define your star word. Does your word have multiple definitions or uses? What seems to fit and what doesn't? What is an antonym for your word? Can you recognize the word as a gift or void in your life? A comfort or a challenge?

The Third Evangelist: What Makes Luke So Special, Right after 10 a.m. Worship (Cloister)

The Gospel of Luke provides a veritable treasure trove of narratives found in no other New Testament Gospel. From Mary's soaring Magnificat to the Parable of the Good Samaritan, Luke tantalizes his audience with some of the church's most beloved songs and stories. His presentation of Jesus' Resurrection—at Emmaus and in Jerusalem—is simply stunning in its narration and implications. Oh, and there is more You are invited to join freelance scholar Samuel Moss (M.Div., Duke University) in this three-week exploration guaranteed to intrigue the mind as well as the heart.

Fun in February—Coffee & Conversation with Our Clergy

It has been a hard start to the year, but there is joy in our faith and the friendships we form. Our clergy, Rev. Ginny and Rev. Pam, will be at A Special Blend (3900 W. Market St.) each Tuesday in February, from 12–1 p.m. Drop in for delicious coffee and cup-filling conversation. We look forward to seeing you there.

Hearing the Gospel—No Meeting this Week

Please note that Hearing the Gospel will not meet on Wednesday, February 5. Please join us in the Parish Hall when we resume on February 12 at 10:30 a.m.

All are Invited to the Funeral for Steven Loch—February 5

Our love and condolences go out to Steven’s husband, Fred Johnson. The funeral for Steven will be on Wednesday, February 5, at 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary, and will also be livestreamed. A reception will follow in the Parish Hall.

Winter Emergency Shelter—How to Volunteer in January, February, and March

St. Andrew’s is supporting the Winter Emergency Shelters at local churches that have partnered with Greensboro Urban Ministry (G.U.M.) to provide a warm place to sleep and an evening meal to men experiencing homelessness. There are three ways to help, including joining with others to prepare and deliver a meal for 15 people, serving as a check-in host, or being an overnight volunteer. You can sign up at Winter Emergency Shelter - First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, N.C., where there are links for each of the three volunteer options. We will be providing dinner at First Baptist on Wednesday, March 12.

Support St. Andrew’s EYC With Their Favorite Thing—Food!

Our EYC is growing, and they’re growling too—oh wait, that’s just their tummies. We love to provide dinner at the end of our youth meetings as a chance to sit down together, break bread, and share time around the table with friends. If you are interested in providing dinner for the EYC, we have several dates open this winter and spring. Dinner can be as simple as pizza or as complicated as you like. Email Martha at martha@standrewsgso.org for more information or to sign up!

Beware of “Phishing” Texts, Emails, and Other Online Scams

From time to time, “phishing” email messages appearing to come from the Rev. Ginny Bain Inman and other staff are sent to parishioners and others. These may include meeting requests or requests for gift cards, and some include a copied profile photo to make the impersonation more convincing. Please be careful when you notice unexpected messages, and know that Rev. Ginny and St. Andrew’s will always make requests through our official communications channels (such as our eNews, bulletin, and website), and never through direct email appeals. Please mark suspicious messages as spam, block the sender, and delete the message. If you have a question or concern about such a message, please contact the office at parish@standrewsgso.org.

Let’s Gather for Breakfast—Friday, February 14

All are invited to an informal breakfast gathering at Green Valley Grill on Valentine’s Day, February 14, at 8:30 a.m. We look forward to sharing food and fellowship with friends of St. Andrew’s. Please RSVP by noon the day before to Jonathan Stephens at 615-480-3804 or stephens.jonathan.r@gmail.com.

Women of St. Andrew’s, Save the Date for Connect in Community—February 20 at 7 p.m.

You’re invited to another Connect in Community, a time for deepening our relationships with one another and our faith. Sarah Chowning will lead our time together, and we’ll talk in small groups and create prayers, with plenty of time for sound and silence. Look for a sign-up coming soon!

Save the Date for Our Annual Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper—March 4, 5:30–7:30 p.m.

Look for more details soon about how to buy tickets and how to help!

Thank You for Supporting St. Andrew’s

We are grateful for your continued gifts that sustain our mission and ministry. If you have questions about your giving, setting up or changing a recurring draft, or making gifts of stock or other funds, please email Ray Marsh, at bookkeeper@standrewsgso.org or leave him a message at 336-275-1651, ext. 3.

To make a gift, scan the code at right, visit abundant.co/standrewsepiscopalch/give, or mail your check to: St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church Bookkeeper, 2105 W. Market St., Greensboro, NC 27403.

You may still submit your pledge for our Together Campaign for 2025 at <https://bit.ly/TOGETHER2025> or email parish@standrewsgso.org to request a pledge packet. Every pledge matters.

May the God of steadfastness and encouragement grant you to live in harmony with one another, in accordance with Christ Jesus, so that together you may with one voice glorify the God and Father of Lord Jesus Christ. —Romans 15:5–6

Being Here: Opening Prayer

Turning to the day and to each other

We open ourselves to the day and each other.

This is the day that the Lord has made and a day we’ll have to make our way through.

Whether with ease or pain with patience or joy

May we find opportunities for generosity toward others and ourselves.

May we find moments of encounter even in isolation.

May we find stories and memories even in the most complicated corners.

*May we start again
where we have failed again.*

May we confess and be confessed to.

*Because this is a way of living
That’s worth living daily.*
