

Day of Pentecost

June 8, 2025, 10:00 a.m.

Holy Eucharist Rite II

Feeding the Hungry + Welcoming the Stranger
Being Transformed by God

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our visitor's card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church. Activity bags are available at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged.

Prelude

O Happy Morning

Cathy Moglebust

Handbell Choir: Linda Cummer, Ashley Ellin, Ann Herman, Shirley Keel, Carol Phillips, Hannah Schlotterer, Marion Seaman, Sean Toso

Opening Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

Hail thee, festival day!

Hymnal 225

The Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Song of Praise

Holy Spirit, ever living

Hymnal 511

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, who on this day taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Children's Procession

Children in grades K–5 are invited to process out of the church and head downstairs to the Children's Chapel together. We will celebrate Pentecost with a special story, offering, activities, and music, returning for the announcements.

Praise Him, praise Him, all ye little children, God is love, God is love. (Repeat)

Love Him, love Him, all ye little children, God is love, God is love. (Repeat)

The Word of God

The First Reading (Please be seated.)

Acts 2:1–21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Reader      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (sung by all)

Psalm 104:25–35, 37
Anglican Chant by Jerome Meacham

Chanting the Psalm: Move to next note after / and * and at each new verse. When a verse begins with † sing from † in the chant.

O Lord, how manifold are your / works! *

in wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your / creatures.

Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to / number, * creatures both small and / great.

There move the ships, and there is that Le- / viathan, *
which you have made for the / sport of it.

All of them look to / you *
to give them their food in due / season.

You give it to them; they / gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with / good things.

You hide your face, and they are / terrified; *
you take away their breath, and they die and return to their / dust.

You send forth your Spirit, and they are cre- / ated; *
and so you renew the face of the / earth.

May the glory of the Lord endure for / ever; *
may the Lord rejoice in all his / works.

He looks at the earth and it / trembles; *
he touches the mountains and they / smoke.

I will sing to the Lord as long as I / live; *
I will praise my God while I have my / being.

† May these words of mine / please him; *
I will rejoice in the Lord. Halle- / lujah!

Gradual Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

Come down, O Love divine (vv. 1–2)

Hymnal 516

The Holy Gospel

John 14:8–17, 25–27

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Philip said to Jesus, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

“If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.”

“I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People (standing or kneeling)

On this Pentecost Sunday, let us raise our prayer to God for the Spirit sent to anoint us, saying, Lord, hear our prayer.

For the spirit of joy in the church, that our Eastertide Alleluias may resound throughout the year, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the spirit of peace in the world, that all peoples, especially nations in conflict, may live in harmony, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the spirit of justice for the needy, that victims of prejudice, exploitation, crime, and oppression may be set free, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the spirit of unity, that our weakness may make us strong and our differences bring us understanding and appreciation, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the spirit of hope, that we and all who have died may rest in God, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Celebrant: Good and gracious God, send forth your Spirit into our hearts. Help us, like the disciples in Jerusalem, to spill out into the streets to proclaim your wonderful works. Take away the fear between people, churches, nations, and families. Tear down the walls that divide us and make us one through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We Pray For

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: The Anglican Church of Melanesia

This province, closely connected historically to Anglicans in New Zealand, includes the Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, and the French trust territory of New Caledonia. With a clever double-meaning, in 1849 the Anglican mission named a ship serving the islands The Southern Cross. It was followed by a succession of ships, and Southern Cross No. 10 still functions today. New Zealand bishops consecrated John Patteson as the first Bishop of Melanesia in 1861. A decade later he and others were martyred, mistakenly associated with the seizure of men from the islands to work in Fiji and Queensland. The theological college in the Solomons is named for Bishop Patteson, and in our Episcopal Church's Holy Women, Holy Men calendar, we remember him on September 20th. The Anglican Church of Melanesia became a province in the Communion in 1975.

Diocesan Cycle of Prayer: St. Paul's, Monroe; St. James', Mooresville; St. Patrick's, Mooresville
