People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Word of God

The First Reading (Please be seated.)

Proverbs 8:1–4, 22–31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: “To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world’s first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.”

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (read responsively by whole verse)

Psalm 8

*O Lord our Governor, **

how exalted is your Name in all the world!

Out of the mouths of infants and children *

your majesty is praised above the heavens.

*You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, **

to quell the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *

the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,

*What is man that you should be mindful of him? **

the son of man that you should seek him out?

You have made him but little lower than the angels; *

you adorn him with glory and honor;

*You give him mastery over the works of your hands; **

you put all things under his feet:

All sheep and oxen, *

even the wild beasts of the field,

*The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, **
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

O Lord our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

Gradual Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

God is love, let heaven adore him (vv. 1–2)

Hymnal 379

The Holy Gospel (standing)

John 16:12–15

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Gradual Hymn

God is love, let heaven adore him (v. 3)

Thanksgiving Over Water

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Baptism

Celebrant Sherry, I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Sherry, you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

Let us pray.

Celebrant Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised her to the new life of grace. Sustain her, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give her an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

Celebrant and People We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

We Pray For

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: La Iglesia Anglicana de Mexico

The Roman Catholic Church was Mexico's official religion until its war for independence (1810–21). With greater religious freedom, in 1860 some Christians formed the Church of Jesus. Wanting to secure apostolic succession, they persuaded our Episcopal Church to help that along by our consecrating their first bishop. But, for complicated reasons, our General Convention in 1904 created a Missionary District of Mexico, which duplicated the Church of Jesus' synod. Left with that challenge, the Mexicans' Church of Jesus asked to become part of the new district. No sooner had this happened than the Revolution of 1917 restricted churches. These restrictions continued until mid-century. Finally, in 1995 la Iglesia Anglicana de Mexico became a province in the Communion. In 2024, disputes over elections to the episcopacy created tensions. Bishop Jo Bailey-Wells, now deputy secretary general of the Anglican Communion but previously heading Duke Divinity School's Anglican Episcopal House of Studies, has been instrumental in seeking to resolve the matter.

St. Andrew's Summer of Sabbath and Solidarity

This summer, you are invited to prioritize the rhythm of loving God and neighbor that sustains us. Keeping the sabbath is part of the fabric of creation and one of God's Ten Commandments. Sabbath provides us intentional time and space to breathe deeply, to return to God, and to be renewed. Whether sabbath for you means spending time with friends and family, basking in God's creation, or simply slowing down to savor the joys of summer, carve out time to reconnect with God in the months ahead. As author Tricia Hershey puts it, rest is also resistance—to a world that is always demanding that we do and buy and become more. Sabbath reminds us that we are created in God's image and that we are enough.

When our spiritual cup is full, we are better able to serve others, to speak out and show up. There will be a variety of ways to show solidarity for our neighbors this summer through efforts to support Abundant Life and the food pantry, call leaders about legislative priorities, wash the feet of refugees and immigrants, or tutor children who need extra educational support. We have gifts of healing and hope and a commitment to justice that are needed in this hurting world.

We hold together the inner journey of faith and the outer journey of discipleship. Look for possibilities for sabbath and solidarity in future eNews editions. We will break bread together after church in August and share our summer experiences.

A Little Jesus Goes a Long Way!

On Pentecost, we gave everyone a little Jesus to carry as a reminder of God's love that goes with us wherever we go. We are all called to share Jesus, and a little Jesus goes a long way. If you did not get one, know that we always have more Jesus to give (and you can pick one up in the church office). This summer, all are invited to take pictures of you and Jesus and send them to Susan Frye at parish@standrewsgso.org. We will be sharing the pictures and stories online and in the Parish Hall.
