Feeding the Hungry + Welcoming the Stranger + Being Transformed by God

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our visitor's card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church, and we offer activity bags at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged. While we normally have children's ministry, today our preschool through elementary age children will remain in the church for the baptism.

Prelude

Opening Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

For all the saints, who from their labors rest

Hymnal 287

The Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 299

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant There is one Body and one Spirit;

People There is one hope in God's call to us;

Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;

People One God and Father of all.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Word of God

The First Reading (Please be seated.)

Ephesians 1:11–23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance toward redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (sung by choir)

Psalm 149

Hallelujah!

*Sing to the Lord a new song; **

sing his praise in the congregation of the faithful.

*Let Israel rejoice in his Maker; **

let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.

*Let them praise his Name in the dance; **

let them sing praise to him with timbrel and harp.

*For the Lord takes pleasure in his people  and adorns the poor with victory.

*Let the faithful rejoice in triumph; **

let them be joyful on their beds.

*Let the praises of God be in their throat **

and a two-edged sword in their hand;

*To wreak vengeance on the nations **

and punishment on the peoples;

*To bind their kings in chains **

and their nobles with links of iron;

*To inflict on them the judgment decreed; **

this is glory for all his faithful people.

Hallelujah!

Gradual Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

Ye watchers and ye holy ones (vv. 1–2)

Hymnal 618

The Holy Gospel (standing)

Luke 6:20–31

Celebrant The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus looked up at his disciples and said: “Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled. Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are full now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who are laughing now, for you will mourn and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets. But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.”

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Thanksgiving Over Water

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.
Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.
 We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
 Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.
 To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Baptism

The candidate is presented to the Celebrant who then pours water upon the candidate, saying Eleanor, I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
 Eleanor, you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.
 Let us pray.
 Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon this your servant the forgiveness of sin, and have raised her to the new life of grace. Sustain her, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give her an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.
 Let us welcome the newly baptized.
Celebrant and People
We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

Offertory Anthem

Sing with All the Saints in Glory

Carl Schalk

*Sing with all the saints in glory,
Sing the resurrection song!
Death and sorrow, earth's dark story,
To the former days belong.
All around the clouds are breaking;
Soon the storms of time shall cease;
In God's likeness we awake,
Knowing everlasting peace.*

*O what glory, far exceeding
All that eye has yet perceived!
Holy hearts, for ages pleading,
Never that full joy conceived.
God has promised, Christ prepares it,
There on high our welcome waits;
Ev'ry humble spirit shares it;
Christ has passed the eternal gates.*

*Life eternal! Heav'n rejoices:
Jesus lives, who once was dead!
Shout with joy, o deathless voices;
Child of God, lift up your head!
Life eternal! O what wonders
Crowd on faith; what joy unknown,
When amid earth's closing thunders,
Saints shall stand before the throne!*

Blessed are those who die in the Lord.

For they rest from their labors.

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: The Church of the Province of West Africa

The Gambia, Ghana, Liberia, and Sierra Leone are the historic Anglican dioceses in the Church of the Province of West Africa. The Gambia is the tiniest, both church and nation—the nation is fifteen miles wide at its widest point. Anglicanism meekly began in this overwhelmingly Muslim country with the arrival of a priest from the West Indies in 1855. The province also includes Sierra Leone, the historic center of Anglican mission work in the region; Ghana, the strongest Anglican presence in the region these days; and Liberia, which has historic American church ties and is one of only two territories in Africa that was never colonized. In recent decades these Anglicans initiated missionary dioceses in nearby French-speaking nations, and Cameroon, Guinea, and Senegal, along with the former-Portuguese Cape Verde islands, are now part of the province. Nigeria, the Anglican giant in West Africa, has its own province.

Today

Welcome to Our All Saints' Celebration

Today we celebrate the Feast of All Saints', a special time in the church year for remembering our loved ones who have died and those saints in light who have gone before us. It is a day when we hold together quiet reflection and joyful celebration. We will celebrate a baptism, and our service will feature beautiful music and a special way to pray for those who have brought us closer to Christ. At the end of our service, we will bless our long-awaited Scattering Garden and new cross sculpture, created by Jim Galucci, in the Memorial Garden. If we have missed a name in our listing of the faithful departed today, please let Susan Frye know, at parish@standrewsgso.org.

Souls to the Polls: Election Day is this Tuesday, November 4

Before you head for the polls, learn more about the candidates on your ballot. Often, we aren't familiar with candidates for local offices, but these positions greatly affect our day-to-day lives on issues such as education, reproductive rights, health care, and gun violence / public safety. To see a sample ballot for your precinct, go to the State Board of Elections at <https://vt.ncsbe.gov/RegLkup/> and enter your information. You can then search for the web pages of candidates to make sure they will support the issues you care about.

New Formation Class: Walking in Love for Such a Time as This—Starting November 9

Our Walk in Love formation series continues in November with Walking in Love for Such a Time as This: The Challenge of Walking in Love and Prophetic Witness. Led by Leon Spencer, these formation sessions essentially will ask this question: Facing extraordinary times, how might we faithfully walk in love? We will examine the biblical foundations of prophetic witness, consider the realm of prophetic theology, and try to understand what is key to a faith community's witness to human need and justice. How do we "respect the dignity of every human person" and simultaneously engage in prophetic witness? Is it even possible to engage in prophetic witness and walk in love? How? Join us after 10 a.m. worship in the Cloister, Sundays November 9, 16, and 23.

Care Packages are in the Works! Send Us Your College Students' Addresses—November 10

If you have a child or grandchild in college, please let us know so a Care Package can be sent before their exams. We are also collecting snacks and other goodies—instant oatmeal, hot chocolate packets, sticky notes, pens, leftover Halloween candy, etc.! Help Share God's Love: Cook for Abundant Life's Community Dinner!—Tuesday, November 11

With so many neighbors not receiving food assistance, one simple way we can help is by cooking for Abundant Life's weekly dinners, where hospitality, fellowship, and good food abound. St. Andrew's turn is Tuesday, November 11, and we're invited to provide entrees and vegetable sides. Here's how to help:

- Use a disposable 9x13 pan, label it with your name and the name of the dish. Then drop off in one of two easy ways:
 - In advance: Freeze your dish and place it in the church's pantry freezer by Sunday morning, November 9.
 - On the day: Bring it to Barbara Cooke's home (near Guilford College) on Tuesday, November 11.

Sign up using the link in this week's eNews. Contact Barbara Cooke at bjcooke58@gmail.com with any questions. Thank you for being part of this ministry of hospitality which brings hope and connection to our neighbors!
