Being Transformed by God

An Invitation to a Holy Lent

The Season of Lent is set aside as a time of renewal, repentance, and remembrance. During Lent, we are invited to deepen our awareness of God's presence in our lives, and to draw closer to God. Traditionally, Christians have done this by choosing to make sacrifices or add disciplines of Bible reading and study, fasting, or prayer. Lent is also a time for reflection, a time to discover and remove the self-made barriers that keep us from experiencing God more fully. Throughout Lent, the worship services are still joyful, but more subdued. The church hangings are purple, the word "Alleluia" is not used in the liturgy or the hymns, and our altars are not adorned with flowers. These practices help the worshipping community mark this as a season for remembering God's gifts of mercy and grace.

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us today. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our Welcome card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church. We offer children's ministry time during worship as well as activity bags at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged.

Jesus loves you (sung by all)

*Jesus loves you, this we know, for the Bible tells us so.
Little ones to him belong; they are weak, but He is strong.
Yes, Jesus loves you. Yes, Jesus loves you.
Yes, Jesus loves you; the Bible tells us so.*

The Word of God

A Reading from the Hebrew Bible

Genesis 2:15–17; 3:1–7

The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it. And the Lord God commanded the man, “You may freely eat of every tree of the garden; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die.”

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God say, ‘You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?’” The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.’” But the serpent said to the woman, “You will not die; for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.” So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

The Psalm (sung by choir)

*Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
and whose sin is put away!*

*Happy are they to whom the Lord imputes no guilt, *
and in whose spirit there is no guile!*

Psalm 32

The Anglican Chant Psalter #75,
by John Blow

*While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, **
because of my groaning all day long.
*For your hand was heavy upon me day and night; **
my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.
*Then I acknowledged my sin to you, **
and did not conceal my guilt.
*I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord." **
Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.
*Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble; **
when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them.
*You are my hiding-place; you preserve me from trouble; **
you surround me with shouts of deliverance.
*"I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go; **
I will guide you with my eye.
*Do not be like horse or mule, which have no understanding; **
who must be fitted with bit and bridle,
or else they will not stay near you."
*Great are the tribulations of the wicked; **
but mercy embraces those who trust in the Lord.
*Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the Lord; **
shout for joy, all who are true of heart.

The Epistle

Romans 5:12–19

As sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned-- sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come.

But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

The Holy Gospel

Matthew 4:1–11

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” But he answered, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’” Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’”

Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

Lenten Formation Begins Today! Courage Is Contagious Meets in the Cloister after Worship
In this class, we will consider what it means to live and act with courage as people of faith. Scripture is full of stories of courage ranging from those like Daniel and Esther who were brave in the face of fear, to whole communities of faith like those in Rome or Philippi that chose God's will over contemporary culture. In Lent, we focus on the courage of Jesus whose love of God led him to unexpected relationships, confrontations with power, and great sacrifice. The word courage comes from the Latin root cor, meaning heart. In the Gospels, Jesus encourages those he encounters to "take heart," to trust and be changed by God's love. Come learn with us as we explore the modern day meaning of courage and learn from those who inspire us. Courage is contagious! Led today by the Rev. Ginny Inman in the Cloister.

Forty Days of Feeding the Hungry

To meet our long-standing commitment to feeding the hungry, we need you! This year we are challenging everyone in the congregation to collect 40 pounds of food or give $40 to support our feeding ministry during Lent. There will be boxes in the parish hall marked "40 Days" for food, and checks can be made out to "St. Andrew's Food Insecurity." Most needed food items include: rice, pasta, beans (dried and canned), canned vegetables, and canned meats and fish.

Did you know that the food pantry we support with our "Burgundy Bag" food collection serves 6,000 clients each month? It is a lifeline for many individuals and families. However, this feeding ministry is in a time of transition. At the end of February, One Step Further will no longer run the food pantry. Fortunately, the feeding ministry will continue at the same place (Definition Church) under a new name, "Simple Ways," with continued direction by Susan Cox and current staff members. Simple Ways needs an infusion of funds to get established and is asking us and its other funding partners for immediate support so there is no gap in feeding our neighbors. If you can help with an additional donation, please contact Doug Sanecki, our Outreach Chair, at dpsanecki@gmail.com.

Lenten Resources for Reflection and Prayer

Living Well Through Lent 2026: Cultivating Healing and Wholeness in Heart, Soul, Strength, and Mind, from Living Compass

Available as a booklet in our Parish Hall and church entrances and at livingcompass.org/lent

The Living Compass Model for Well-Being offers us guidance in four dimensions of our being: heart, soul, strength, and mind. Just like a mobile or kinesthetic art, these dimensions are interconnected—movement in one area affects all the others. This year's theme of Healing and Wholeness aligns beautifully with the invitation to a Holy Lent, as the words holy, whole, health, and healing all share a common root. The season of Lent is an ideal time to focus on healing and wholeness—for ourselves and for the world.

Holy Habits: Lenten Meditations by Sister Monica Clare, from Episcopal Relief and Development (ERD) Available at episcopalrelief.org/church-in-action/lent/

Written by Sister Monica Clare, an Episcopal nun, author, and unlikely TikTok star, ERD's 2026 meditations offer an invitation to rediscover—or deepen—holy habits of prayer, worship, and engagement with Scripture. These “holy habits” provide a path to a life that is given shape, meaning, and direction by being rooted in a deeper relationship with God.
