

Holy Eucharist Rite II

Third Sunday of Easter

April 19, 2026

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church

Feeding the Hungry + Welcoming the Stranger

Being Transformed by God

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our welcome card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church. Activity bags are available at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged.

Prelude

This is My Father's World

arr. Michael Helman

Handbell Ringers: Cynthia Boyd, Linda Cummer, Ashley Ellin, Isaac Hawkins, Ann Herman, Shirley Keel, Mike McGrew, Yvonne Michel, Carol Phillips, Marion Seaman

Opening Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)

We know that Christ is raised and dies no more

Hymnal 296

The Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 355

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria

Hymnal S-277

Hymns beginning with S are found in the Service music in the front pages of the Hymnal.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Children's Procession

All children are invited to Children's Ministry time. They will process out of the church together and go to the classroom hall for Godly Play and Kids of the Kingdom, returning for the announcements.

Jesus loves you (sung by all)

*Jesus loves you, this we know, for the Bible tells us so.
Little ones to him belong; they are weak, but He is strong.
Yes, Jesus loves you. Yes, Jesus loves you.
Yes, Jesus loves you; the Bible tells us so.*

The Word of God

The First Reading (Please be seated.)

Acts 2:14a,36–41

Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd, “Let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified.”

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?” Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.” And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this corrupt generation.” So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

The Psalm (sung by all)

Psalm 116:1–3, 10–17

Anglican Chant by Jerome Meacham

Chanting the Psalm:

*Move to next note after / and *
and at each new verse.*

*When the last verse begins with +,
sing from + in the chant.*

*I love the Lord, because he has heard the voice of my suppli- / cation, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I / called upon him.*

*The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took / hold of me; *
I came to grief and / sorrow.*

*Then I called upon the Name of the / Lord: **

"O Lord, I pray you, save my / life."

*How shall I repay the / Lord **

for all the good things he has / done for me?

*I will lift up the cup of sal- / vation **

and call upon the Name of the / Lord.

*I will fulfill my vows to the / Lord **

in the presence of all his / people.

*Precious in the sight of the / Lord **

is the death of his / servants.

*O Lord, I am your / servant; **

I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;

you have freed me from my / bonds.

*I will offer you the sacrifice of thanks- / giving **

and call upon the Name of the / Lord.

*I will fulfill my vows to the / Lord **

in the presence of all his / people,

*+ In the courts of the Lord's / house, **

in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Halle- / lujah!

The Epistle

1 Peter 1:17–23

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God.

Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

Gradual Hymn (standing)

Come, risen Lord, and deign to be our guest (vv. 1–2)

Hymnal 305

The Holy Gospel

Luke 24:13–35

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now on that same day two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him." Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?" That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Sharing Our Stories: Join Us for Easter Formation—Today after 10 a.m. Worship (Cloister)

After the resurrection, those who had walked with Jesus or seen the Risen Lord, shared the stories of their encounters with God. Telling your story or writing your autobiography is an act of spiritual reflection that is an important undertaking for everyone. Our stories allow us to connect with one another and claim the ways we have been shaped and formed. Join veteran biographer and award-winning storyteller Jim Dodson for this special formation offering that invites you to consider your own life journey. Bring a notebook and your story-telling curiosity! In the Cloister after 10 a.m. worship.

Invite–Welcome–Connect Meets with Rev. Eric—Today after 10 a.m. Worship (Library)

The Invite–Welcome–Connect (IWC) committee welcomes visitors and new members to the St. Andrew’s community. Our committee will meet with Rev. Eric today after 10 a.m. worship to finalize plans for our Welcome Breakfast on April 26. This is a wonderful opportunity to help people make connections and learn how to get involved in the life of the congregation. We need a variety of gifts to provide a vibrant ministry of holy hospitality. If you have an interest in serving on this committee, please join Eric after 10 a.m. worship in the Library. You can email Eric at eric@standrewsgso.org.

Free Concert at St. Andrew’s —Today at 4 p.m. (Sanctuary)

The Triad Early Music Society (TEMS) will be performing a concert at St. Andrew’s at 4 p.m. in the Sanctuary today. The concert will feature their group The Loose Canons playing “old and new-ish” recorder works. Donations will be accepted. Come out and enjoy an hour of beautiful music!

Announcements for the Easter Season

Funeral for Chip Dawson—April 23 at 2 p.m. (Chapel)

All are invited to the funeral for Chip Dawson on Thursday, April 23, at 2 p.m. in the Chapel. A reception will follow in the Parish Hall.

You're Invited to a St. Andrew's Welcome Breakfast, April 26—RSVP Today

Want to learn more about St. Andrew's and how you can connect with our mission? You are invited to a Welcome Breakfast next Sunday, April 26, 9:00–9:45 a.m., in the Parish Hall. This is an opportunity—both for new members and for those who are newcomers who have not yet joined St. Andrew's—to meet fellow parishioners and ministry leaders and learn more about St. Andrew's mission and outreach. We will answer questions and provide information about the groups and ministries that make St. Andrew's a vibrant community of faith. Breakfast will be served. RSVP to Rev. Eric Tuttle at eric@standrewsgso.org to help us plan, but last-minute additions are welcome.

Worship with Liturgy of Belonging for New Members, April 26—Please RSVP Today

New members at St. Andrew's are invited to participate in a Liturgy of Belonging during our 10 a.m. worship on April 26. If you have become a member in the past year—or consider yourself still to be a new member—you are warmly invited to participate in the Liturgy of Belonging. (You are also invited to attend the Welcome Breakfast at 9 a.m.!) RSVP to Rev. Eric Tuttle at eric@standrewsgso.org.

Save the Date for Our Next Sprouts Brunch!—April 26 at The Sage Mule

Our next Sprouts Brunch will be right after church next Sunday at The Sage Mule, a local favorite brunch and lunch spot in downtown Greensboro that happens to have one of our group's favorite things—a big, kid-friendly patio! The Sage Mule also has a menu with gluten-free, vegetarian, and vegan-friendly deliciousness. If you know you'll be there, email martha@standrewsgso.org so we can give the restaurant a rough headcount, but last-minute joiners are always welcome.

Our Next Middle School Meetup is Next Sunday—April 26, 4–5 p.m. (Herman Hall)

It's time for our next Middle School Meetup! Join us on April 26 from 4–5 p.m. in Herman Hall. This session will be led by Eric, our amazing Associate Rector. We can't wait to see all of our 6th–8th grade friends there! Feel free to stay after for EYC, which will be from 5–6:30 pm.

Coffee & Conversation with Clergy: Tuesdays in May at A Special Blend—Starting May 5

This Easter Season, our clergy are eager to connect with you! There is joy in our faith and the friendships we form. You are invited to join clergy and other parishioners at A Special Blend's Greensboro location at 3900–C W. Market St., right up the street from St. Andrew's. Drop in on Tuesdays in May from 12–1 p.m. for delicious coffee and cup-filling conversation. We look forward to seeing you there.

We Need Your Class of 2026 Graduates' Names—Please Submit by May 5

As part of our Youth Sunday service on May 17, we will pray for and recognize all Class of 2026 high school and higher ed graduates. Please help us complete our list! Email each graduate's first and last name, school name, and degree to parish@standrewsgso.org by May 5 for inclusion in the May 17 bulletin. You are also welcome to include a sentence about your grad's hopes, dreams, or next steps if you would like. We look forward to celebrating all of our Class of 2026's milestones.

Come Enjoy a Wonderful Spring Tea—Saturday, May 9 at 2 p.m. (Parish Hall)

Bring your mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, friend, or neighbor for a full English Tea and delightful conversation. You're encouraged to wear your favorite hat, and if you have a favorite teacup you may bring that as well! We will take a love offering (suggested at $20) for SimpleWays and their food pantry, long supported by St. Andrew's and which supports 6,000 clients each month. Look for the signup sheet in the Parish Hall and online in our eNews. Please sign up by May 3.

Do You Have a Rising Fifth, Sixth, or Seventh Grader? Let's Get You on the Jr. EYC Email List!

Beginning in the fall of 2026, we'll be offering something new for St. Andrew's 5th-7th graders—a weekly Jr. EYC! Much like our long-standing EYC (Episcopal Youth Community), the Jr. EYC will meet on Sunday evenings to build community, engage in service and volunteer opportunities, explore a deeper connection to faith as we grow, and best of all, to have a great time doing all of this with friends! If you have a rising 5th –7th grader in your household and are interested in learning more, reach out to martha@standrewsgso.org. We'll be creating a Jr. EYC email list over the next few weeks and will be sending out information about the formation of this group over the summer.

Sign Up for Our Men's Retreat, "Biscuits and Belonging"—May 30, 9 a.m.–12 p.m. (Parish Hall)

The Men's Retreat will be a morning of reflection, conversation, and connection, led by Rev. Eric Tuttle, and exploring the ideas of community and friendship. Please RSVP by May 25, using the link in this week's eNews, so we know you'll be there. And yes, there will be biscuits!

Compassion Camp Registration Is OPEN! Sign Up Today for Our VBS Week, July 27–31

This year's Compassion Camp VBS will be held July 27–31. We're already getting excited about this week of gardening, crafting, learning, yoga, and animal visitors, so be sure to mark your calendars and make your plans to attend. Compassion Camp is fully inclusive and is for ages 4–9. Ages 10 and up are welcome to come as volunteers. Compassion Camp runs Monday–Friday, 9 a.m.–12 p.m., and the cost is $50 for the week. Scholarships are available. Sign up your camper(s) at the link in this week's eNews.
