Order of Worship for Holy Eucharist Rite II

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

October 11, 2026

SAINT ANDREW'S
EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Feeding the Hungry + Welcoming the Stranger
Being Transformed by God

Welcome to this morning's worship!

Thank you for joining us. If you are new to our service, please take a moment to fill out our welcome card so we can get to know you. Please use this bulletin, the red Book of Common Prayer (BCP), and the blue Hymnal to follow along in worship. Nursery care is available down the stairs at the back of the church. Activity bags are available at the back of the church to keep little hearts and hands engaged.

Prelude

Opening Hymn (Please stand as you are able.)
Christ, whose glory fills the skies Hymnal 7

The Opening Acclamation BCP p. 355
Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Gloria Hymnal S–280
Hymns beginning with S are found in the Service music in the front pages of the Hymnal.

The Collect of the Day
Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Children's Procession
All children are invited to Children's Ministry time. They will process out of the church together and go to the classroom hall for Godly Play and Kids of the Kingdom, returning for the announcements.

Praise Him, praise Him, all ye little children, God is love, God is love. (Repeat)
Love Him, love Him, all ye little children, God is love, God is love. (Repeat)

The Word of God

The Lesson from the Hebrew Bible (Please be seated.) Exodus 32:1–14

When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered around Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make gods for us, who shall go before us; as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has become of him." Aaron said to them, "Take off the gold rings that are on the ears of your wives, your sons, and your daughters, and bring them to me." So all the people took off the gold rings from their ears, and brought them to Aaron. He took the gold from them, formed it in a mold, and cast an image of a calf; and they said, "These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" When Aaron saw this, he built an altar before it; and Aaron made proclamation and said, "Tomorrow shall be a festival to the Lord." They rose early the next day, and offered burnt offerings and brought sacrifices of well-being; and the people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to revel.

The Lord said to Moses, "Go down at once! Your people, whom you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have acted perversely; they have been quick to turn aside from the way that I commanded them; they have cast for themselves an image of a calf, and have worshiped it and sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!'" The Lord said to Moses, "I have seen this people, how stiff-necked they are. Now let me alone, so that my wrath may burn hot against them and I may consume them; and of you I will make a great nation."

But Moses implored the Lord his God, and said, "O Lord, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'It was with evil intent that he brought them out to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the face of the earth'? Turn from your fierce wrath; change your mind and do not bring disaster on your people. Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, how you swore to them by your own self, saying to them, 'I will multiply your descendants like the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have promised I will give to your descendants, and they shall inherit it forever.'" And the Lord changed his mind about the disaster that he planned to bring on his people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm (sung by choir) Psalm 106:1–6, 19–23

The Anglican Chant Psalter

Chant by Thomas Jackson

Hallelujah!
*Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, *
for his mercy endures for ever.
*Who can declare the mighty acts of the Lord *
or show forth all his praise?
*Happy are those who act with justice *
and always do what is right!
*Remember me, O Lord, with the favor you have for your people, *
and visit me with your saving help;
That I may see the prosperity of your elect
*and be glad with the gladness of your people, *
that I may glory with your inheritance.
*We have sinned as our forebears did; *
we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.
*Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb *
and worshiped a molten image;
*And so they exchanged their Glory *
for the image of an ox that feeds on grass.
*They forgot God their Savior, *
who had done great things in Egypt,
*Wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, *
and fearful things at the Red Sea.
So he would have destroyed them,
*had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, *
to turn away his wrath from consuming them.

The Epistle Philippians 4:1–9

My brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord in this way, my beloved.

I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord. Yes, and I ask you also, my loyal companion, help these women, for they have struggled beside me in the work of the gospel, together with Clement and the rest of my co-workers, whose names are in the book of life.

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone.

The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Gradual Hymn (standing, sung by all)
Father, we thank thee who has planted (v. 1) Hymnal 302

The Holy Gospel Matthew 22:1–14

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once more Jesus spoke to the people in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a wedding banquet for his son. He sent his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding banquet, but they would not come. Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those who have been invited: Look, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fat calves have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding banquet.' But they made light of it and went away, one to his farm, another to his business, while the rest seized his slaves, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged. He sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those invited were not worthy. Go therefore into the main streets, and invite everyone you find to the wedding banquet.' Those slaves went out into the streets and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; so the wedding hall was filled with guests.

"But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing a wedding robe, and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding robe?' And he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

Gradual Hymn
Father, we thank thee who has planted (v. 2) Hymnal 302

The Sermon (seated) The Rev. Katy Campbell

The Nicene Creed BCP p. 358

The Prayers of the People (standing or kneeling) Adapted from Form IV
Grounded in grace and gratitude, let us pray for the Church and for the world saying, God of grace,
Hear our prayer.

In gratitude, we pray for the Church throughout the world. Grant that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and share your hope with all people. God of grace,
Hear our prayer.

In gratitude, we pray for this land and everyone who calls it home. Guide us in the ways of justice and peace, that we may honor one another and work together for the common good. God of grace,
Hear our prayer.

In gratitude, we pray for the earth and all of creation. Give us a reverence for your world, that we may care for its gifts and share them with generosity. God of grace,
Hear our prayer.

In gratitude, we pray for all whose lives are closely linked with ours. Help us to serve Christ in one another and to live together in kindness and love. God of grace,
Hear our prayer.

In gratitude, we pray for your healing presence among us. Comfort and heal all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit. Give them courage and hope in their troubles. We pray especially for those on our hearts, whom we name aloud at this time:

The People speak the names of those on their hearts.

God of grace,
Hear our prayer.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem

As Truly as God is Our Father — William Mathias
Words by Julian of Norwich

As truly as God is our Father,
So just as truly is God our Mother.

In our Father, God Almighty,
We have our being;
In our merciful Mother
We are re-made and restored.

Our fragmented lives are knit together;
And by giving and yielding ourselves
Through grace, to the holy spirit
We are made whole.

It is I, the strength and goodness of Fatherhood.
It is I, the wisdom of Matherhood.
It is I, the light and grace of holy love.
It is I, the Trinity, it is I, the unity.

I am the sovereign goodness in all things.
It is I who teach you to love.
It is I who teach you to desire.
It is I who am the reward of all true desiring.

All shall be well,
And all shall be well,
And all manner of thing shall be well.
Amen.

Today

Growing in Gratitude Adult Formation Begins—Right after Worship (Cloister)
Join us after worship for Grace Received, Gratitude Given: Insights for Life and Worship*, the first session in our next adult formation series. Phil Barrineau will lead us in thinking about the ways grace and gratitude connect, and what it means for life and worship.*

Youth Confirmation Classes Continue—Right after Worship (Herman Hall)
Confirmation classes for youth continue today. This class, along with a day-long retreat, culminates in the Sacrament of Confirmation during the Bishop's Visitation, December 6. To learn about the Confirmation process at St. Andrew's, please contact Martha Chaires at martha@standrewsgso.org.

Come to EYC Tonight for Some Indoor Fun
There's no better place to spend a gray day than Herman Hall! In Jr. EYC from 4-5, we'll be taking off on a Sacrament Scavenger Hunt throughout the church building (with a caramel apple bar energy boost!). Sr. EYC, the nonprofit love continues from 5-6:30 with a deciding vote, a special project, and a cozy taco casserole (vegetarian and non veggie versions available).

ECW Chapter Meeting—Monday, October 12, at 2 p.m. (Parish Hall)
All ladies of St. Andrew's are invited to the next meeting of the Sts. Agatha and Mary Chapter of the ECW (Episcopal Church Women), tomorrow at 2 in the Parish Hall. Our program will be by parishioner Jill Lowe, an artist pursuing a new skill in creating Icons. (She also previously owned a Tea Shop!) Come enjoy the program and refreshments. Contact Cheri Courtright with questions at 336-706-0911.

Wonder Wednesdays Start this Week—Midweek Worship & Meal, October 14 at 5:30 p.m.
This fall, we're inviting all of St. Andrew's to take part in Wonder Wednesdays, an intergenerational midweek service and supper. Beginning on October 14 through November 11, we'll meet in the Chapel on Wednesday nights to worship, wonder, and rest together, with leadership help from our children and youth. We'll follow with a delicious catered dinner in the Parish Hall. Worship begins at 5:30 and dinner will wrap up by 7. Pajamas for kids (of all ages) are encouraged. If you know in advance that you will attend, use the signup link in this week's eNews. Last-minute attendees are always welcome! If you have questions or would like to carpool, email martha@standrewsgso.org*.*

Join Our Community Eucharists—Oct. 15 at Friends Homes West, Oct. 20 at WhiteStone
Our parish family extends beyond the church walls, as our clergy visit Friends Homes West and WhiteStone with a monthly Community Eucharist. Services are held at Friends Homes West on third Thursdays at 11 a.m. and at WhiteStone on third Tuesdays at 1 p.m. If you or a loved one are part of one of these communities, we invite you to join us to connect with some familiar faces.

Calling All 5th–12th Graders to an Acolyte Training Session—October 18 (Sanctuary)
Serving as an acolyte is a great, hands-on way to help lead worship. If you're ready to jump in—or to refresh your skills—join us for acolyte training on October18. Meet Rev. Eric at the front of church right after 10 a.m. worship. Parents and youth can reach out to Eric with questions at eric@standrewsgso.org.

Our Choir Invites You: House of Compassion, a Collaborative Concert—October 18 at 4 p.m.
As part of the Richard Cox Concert Series, the choirs of St. Andrew's, St. Francis, and Holy Trinity Episcopal Churches, along with the Trinity Chamber Strings and harpist Grace Ludtke, will present House of Compassion*, a musical offering of poems by Dr. Linda Brown. The performance is free and open to the public and combines poetry, choral singing, instrumental music, silence, and Taizé for all to sing. We look forward to seeing you October 18 at 4 p.m. at Holy Trinity Church, 607 N. Greene St.*

Our Giving Pledge Campaign Begins October 18

Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all people. Luke 2:10

Our annual Giving Campaign for 2027 kicks off on Sunday, October 18. This year's stewardship theme is Tell Me Something Good: Grounded in Grace and Gratitude. The Good News of God in Jesus Christ is at the heart of our life together at St. Andrew's. We have been fundamentally shaped by God's grace, and it is grace that serves as the foundation for both our gratitude and our generosity.

Our life together thrives because of your faithful support of St. Andrew's. The annual giving campaign, which runs from October 18 to November 1*, focuses on the financial support needed to sustain and grow the church. As you prayerfully consider your pledge this year, know that every gift is appreciated. Each gift matters. May we give generously and joyfully so that St. Andrew's continues to grow in Christ's grace, sharing God's Good News and love.*

Pledge commitment packets will be available for you to pick up before and after worship on Sunday, October 18. Packets that are not picked up will be mailed the following week. Our ingathering will be November 1, when we will celebrate after worship with a festive reception.

All Saints' with Special Remembrance for Those Who Have Died in the Last Year

On All Saints' Sunday we remember the faithful departed whom we have loved and see no longer. The worship bulletin on November 1 will include the names of those who have died in the year that has passed since our last All Saints' remembrance in November 2025. A list has been kept in the office, and we also invite you to email the office with names of those who have died in the past year. Send names to Susan at parish@standrewsgso.org by Friday, October 23. During our service we will also have an opportunity to remember all our saints in light.

Would You Like to Be Confirmed or Received in the Episcopal Church? Please Let Us Know!

Our Bishop's Visitation is December 6, 2026, when Bishop Anne Hodges-Copple will be with us. If you are interested in confirmation, reception, or reaffirmation, please contact Rev. Eric at eric@standrewsgso.org. We will host an informational "Episcopal 101" class beginning soon.

Save the Date! Episcopal 101: Learn about the Episcopal Church—Starting November 1

Are you new or new-ish to the Episcopal Church? Or maybe you've been here a while but have questions or are looking for a way to deepen your faith. Join us for Episcopal 101*, a class on the basics of the Episcopal Church. All are welcome—no matter how long you've called the Episcopal Church home or if you aren't yet sure if it feels like home. We will explore the faith, beliefs, history, structure, and practices of the Church, with plenty of space to ask questions. The class text, Walk in Love: Episcopal Beliefs & Practices, can be purchased at the link in our eNews.* Feel free to contact Spencer Musick with questions, at spencermusick@outlook.com or 706-233-1223.

Please Send Us College Student Addresses—By November 8

If you have a college student in your family or neighborhood who would love to receive a Care Package during exams, please let us know. Send names and address to Susan Frye at parish@standrewsgso.org or Cheri Courtright at CVC987@yahoo.com or (text) 336-706-0911. Be sure to note any food allergies or sensitivities. The deadline for addresses is November 8; boxes will be mailed around Thanksgiving.

Help Send College Care: Goodies & Monetary Donations Accepted—Through November 8

To help our ECW with this project, help fill collection bins (in the Narthex and Parish Hall) with individually wrapped food items (snack bars, crackers, instant oatmeal, soup packets, Halloween candy, etc.) and study or stress relief items (sticky notes, pens, mini jars of playdough, small fidget items, etc.). A new option is to sponsor shipping costs for a care package with a $10 donation. You can pay by check to St. Andrew's or online in Abundant (Donation/Pledge Offering). Use "ECW College Boxes" as the memo with either option.Contact Cheri Courtright with questions at CVC987@yahoo.com or 336-706-0911.
